In compliance with the policy of the Judicial Conference of the United States, and the E-Government Act of 2002, and in order to promote electronic access to case files while also protecting personal privacy and other legitimate interests, the court hereby amends General Order 168 with regard to unredacted documents containing personal data identifiers, to add the following section at the end:

Upon the request of a party interest who has identified a proof of claim and/or attachments thereto which contain any of the personal identifiers itemized in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037(a), the Clerk shall restrict general public access to that proof of claim and attachments and notice the claimant of the requirement to file an amended proof of claim and attachments with the redacted information. This delegation is limited to proofs of claims and attachments. All other requests to restrict public access shall be made by motion consistent with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037.
