GUIDELINES FOR MOTIONS TO USE CASH COLLATERAL OR TO OBTAIN CREDIT

This court is often requested to rule on requests by debtors (and sometimes chapter 11 trustees) for authority to use cash collateral or obtain credit. In an effort to provide guidance to debtors and secured creditors, the court has adopted the following guidelines. As a preliminary matter, all financing motions should be by motion pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 4001, and 9014 and Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013 and should provide a summary of the essential terms of the proposed use of cash collateral and/or financing (e.g.; the maximum borrowing available on a final basis, the interim borrowing limit, borrowing conditions, points or other costs, interest rate, maturity, events of default, use s limitations, and protections afforded under 11 U.S.C. §§ 363 and 364). The debtor should be prepared to present a budget at the interim hearing on such cash collateral usage and/or financing that wo ld suppo the need for such interim funding. The budget should cover the period for which cash ollateral ought.

In addition, the court will typically NOT authorize (par cula lyan interin orders) use of cash collateral and/or financing agreements that contain any one or mare of the fallowing:

- 1. Provisions that grant cross-collateralization protection (other than replacement liens) to the prepetition secured creditor (i.e.; clauses that secure prepetition deso by post-petition assets in which the secured creditor would not otherwise have a security interemby virtue of its prepetition security agreement or applicable law).
- 2. Provisions or findings of fact that and the estate or all parties in interest with respect to the validity, perfection or amount of the ecured creditors prepetition lien or debt or the waiver of claims against the secured creditors without first giving parties in interest at least seventy-five (75) days from the entry of the interim order and the efficient compattee of unsecured creditors, if formed, no less than sixty (60) days notice from the later of the date of its formation or the date of its retention of counsel to investigate such matters, the second directed by the court.
- 3. Provisions that says to wave rights under 11 U.S.C. § 506(c).
- 4. Provisions that fant immediately to the prepetition secured creditor liens on the debtor's claims and causes of action art ng under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 545, 547, 548, and 549.
- 5. Provisions that "roll over" prepetition debt of the prepetition secured creditor to post-petition debt.
- 6. Provisions which provide carveouts for administrative expenses that do not treat all professionals equally or on a pro rata basis.
- 7. Provisions in any agreement for use of cash collateral, financing or conditioning the automatic stay that in effect operate to divest the debtor-in-possession of any discretion in the formulation of a plan or administration of the estate or limit access to the court to seek any relief under other applicable provisions of law. Such provisions include, without limitation, agreements with respect to the treatment of claims.
