Preparation for Filing a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case

Before filing a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case, read the below requirements and filing tips.

1. Debtors must complete Credit Counseling. If you have not completed counseling before you file your petition, and you do not meet the requirements for an extension to complete the counseling after filing:

- Your case may be DISMISSED without refund of any filing fee paid;
- You WILL NOT receive a DISCHARGE of your debts; and
- If you REFILE within ONE YEAR after dismissal, protection under the Bankruptcy Code from your creditors (i.e., the automatic stay) may be limited to thirty days.

Under the bankruptcy laws, the court can allow you to complete the course after filing only if you meet all of the following conditions. See 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(3).

- 1) Prior to filing your petition, you must have requested credit counseling services from a U.S. Trustee approved agency but were unable to obtain the services during the 5-day period following your request.
- 2) There are exigent (emergency) circumstances that make it necessary for you to file your case immediately. (Important: The court will determine what qualifies as an emergency circumstance.)
- 3) You must file a certification stating the facts regarding conditions 1) and 2) above with your petition. Local Forms CSD 1025 (Statement of Exigent Circumstances & Request for Extension of Time to file Certificate of Credit Counseling) and 1027 (Notice of Motion for Exemption and Opportunity for Hearing re: Credit Counseling) are attached.

The decision to file your petition is up to you but, if you file without taking the course, you are risking dismissal of your case. The clerk cannot provide legal advice or predict how a judge will decide your motion for an extension of time to complete the credit counseling requirement.

To complete the requirement before filing your petition, obtain a list of United States Trustee approved pre-bankruptcy credit counseling agencies from the clerk or go to this website: http://www.justice.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.htm

You may take the course on the Internet, by telephone, or in person. If you do not have a computer, your public library may allow you to use their public computers.

NOTE: A waiver of the credit counseling requirement is available in very limited circumstances for persons on military duty in an active combat zone, or persons with a physical or mental impairment preventing participation in credit counseling, in person, by telephone, or on the Internet. A waiver must be granted by the court. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4).

2. Debtors must pay the chapter 13 filing fee (see page 8) at the time of filing. The court accepts cash (exact change), U.S. Postal Service money orders, or cashier's checks issued by an acceptable financial institution. Make cashier's checks or money orders payable to: "Clerk, US Bankruptcy Court." If you are unable to pay the full filing payment, you have the following option:
 - Pay your filing fee in installments, which requires the form CSD 1006: Application to Pay Filing Fees in Installments, to be filed with your petition.
3. If you mail your documents to be filed, please include a self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage so that we can return a copy to you. Our address is: United States Bankruptcy Court, 325 West F Street, San Diego, CA 92101. You must submit one original set. If you would like a stamped copy, bring or mail a copy along with the original. Be sure that you make an additional copy of each document for your records. Remember to sign all of your documents.
4. Government-issued photo identification is required for persons filing a petition without attorney representation. The Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of California has implemented a policy requiring all debtors who are not represented by an attorney ("pro se"), to provide a copy of current government issued photo identification. This policy also applies to persons who bring pro se petitions to the intake counter for filing.
 - Filing in person: When a petition is presented at the counter for filing, the person presenting the petition must provide a current government issued photo identification. A copy of the identification will be made for retention, but will not be accessible as part of the public record.
 - Filing by mail: A photocopy of the debtor(s)' government issued photo identification is required with the petition. If the government issued photocopy is not provided, a deficiency will be noted and the case, if filed, may be subject to dismissal.

Acceptable Forms of Government Issued Identification (must be current, legible and contain a photograph):

1. State issued Driver's License
2. U.S. Government Passport
3. State or Federal Issued Identification Card
4. Federal, State or Local Government Issued Employee Identification Card
5. Military Photo Identification Card
6. Or other form of Government Issued Photo Identification

5. Common Causes for Dismissal Pertaining to Debtor Responsibilities/Deadlines in a Bankruptcy Case

To determine the proper forms to file, review the Chapter 13 Statement of Your Currently Monthly Income, Calculation of Commitment Period and Chapter 13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income Instructions (see page 13).
- FAILURE TO FILE STATEMENT OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER (Form 121) – Debtor(s) must provide the Statement of Social Security at the time of filing.

7. Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as “incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose.”

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of the Bankruptcy Code:

- Chapter 7 — Liquidation
- Chapter 11— Reorganization
- Chapter 12— Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen
- Chapter 13— Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

	$245	filing fee
	$78	administrative fee
+	$15	trustee surcharge
	$338	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law.
Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

- most taxes;
- most student loans;
- domestic support and property settlement
obligations;

- most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

- fraud or theft;
- fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;
- intentional injuries that you inflicted; and
- death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$571	administrative fee
	$1,738	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$278	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$313	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:

<http://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms>

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

- If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.
- All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: <http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:

<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

What is a Creditor Mailing List?

If you would like to submit your petition electronically to the court, please click this eSR link.

Creating a Creditor List

When you file a voluntary petition under any bankruptcy chapter, you the debtor (or your attorney, if you use one) must prepare and submit to the court a mailing list called the creditor matrix, which is a list of creditors to whom you owe money. This mailing list contains all your creditors' and/or equity security holders' name(s) and addresses. As well as filing a list of creditors on paper and listing creditors in appropriate schedules, you are required to submit your creditor matrix electronically using one of the following options:

Option 1:

- Enter your creditors using the court's Online Creditor Entry program available at <https://ecf.casb.uscourts.gov/cgi-bin/CreateCreditorMatrix.pl>
 - From the court website <https://www.casb.uscourts.gov/content/filing-without-attorney-pro-se-filing> :
 - Select Build Creditor Matrix.

Option 2:

- Save your creditor matrix to a USB flash drive in .txt format to provide to the intake clerk(s) at the courthouse.
 - Provide a file name for your flash drive that will be easy for you to remember and for the intake clerk to find.

Option 3:

- Enter your creditors using the public computers in the courthouse.

Whether on paper or electronically, list your creditors and their mailing addresses in a single column, on the left margin, with at least one line between each creditor. See the example at the end of this form.

Each creditor entry is limited to five lines.

Do not include any symbols or special characters (|@#$$%^&*()_+?).

Do not include full account numbers or phone numbers. Do not list the amount owed. Do not include the debtor, joint debtor, U.S. Trustee, Internal Revenue Service, or Franchise Tax Board on the creditor matrix. The court maintains a list of current addresses of State and Federal Agencies on the Court Forms page of the court's website as CSD 1271, in case you need that information for the list of creditors.

Please read: You the debtor are responsible for ensuring that petitions, schedules, and statements, including the creditor matrix, are complete and correct before submitting them to the court. The court is not required to compare the names and addresses on the list of creditors with those on your petition schedules.

Official Form 101Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

☐ Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

For you if you are filing this bankruptcy without an attorney

If you are represented by an attorney, you do not need to file this page.

The law allows you, as an individual, to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, but you should understand that many people find it extremely difficult to represent themselves successfully. Because bankruptcy has long-term financial and legal consequences, you are strongly urged to hire a qualified attorney.

To be successful, you must correctly file and handle your bankruptcy case. The rules are very technical, and a mistake or inaction may affect your rights. For example, your case may be dismissed because you did not file a required document, pay a fee on time, attend a meeting or hearing, or cooperate with the court, case trustee, U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or audit firm if your case is selected for audit. If that happens, you could lose your right to file another case, or you may lose protections, including the benefit of the automatic stay.

You must list all your property and debts in the schedules that you are required to file with the court. Even if you plan to pay a particular debt outside of your bankruptcy, you must list that debt in your schedules. If you do not list a debt, the debt may not be discharged. If you do not list property or properly claim it as exempt, you may not be able to keep the property. The judge can also deny you a discharge of all your debts if you do something dishonest in your bankruptcy case, such as destroying or hiding property, falsifying records, or lying. Individual bankruptcy cases are randomly audited to determine if debtors have been accurate, truthful, and complete.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned.

If you decide to file without an attorney, the court expects you to follow the rules as if you had hired an attorney. The court will not treat you differently because you are filing for yourself. To be successful, you must be familiar with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the local rules of the court in which your case is filed. You must also be familiar with any state exemption laws that apply.

Are you aware that filing for bankruptcy is a serious action with long-term financial and legal consequences?

☐ Yes

Are you aware that bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime and that if your bankruptcy forms are inaccurate or incomplete, you could be fined or imprisoned?

Official Form 106CSchedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- ☐ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income, Calculation of Commitment Period and Chapter 13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income

(Official Forms 122C–1 and 122C–2)

If you are filing under chapter 7, 11, or 12, do not fill out this form.

Official Forms 122C–1 and 122C–2 determine the commitment period for your payments to creditors, how the amount you may be required to pay to creditors is established, and, in some situations, how much you must pay.

You must file the Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period (Official Form 122C–1) if you are an individual and you are filing under chapter 13. This form will report your current monthly income and determine whether your income is at or below the median income for households of the same size in your state. If your income is equal to or less than the median, you will not have to fill out the second form. Form 122C-1 also will determine your applicable commitment period—the time period for making payments to your creditors, unless the court orders otherwise.

If your income is above the median, you must file the second form, Chapter 13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income (Official Form 122C–2). The calculations on this form—sometimes called the Means Test—reduce your income by living expenses and payment of certain debts, resulting in an amount available to pay unsecured debts. Your chapter 13 plan may be required to provide for payment of this amount toward unsecured debts.

Read each question carefully. You may not be required to answer every question on this form. The instructions will alert you if you may skip questions.

Some of the questions require you to go to other sources for information. In those cases, the form has instructions for where to find the information you need.

Generally, if you and your spouse are filing together, you should file one statement together.

Chapter 13 Calculation of Your Disposable Income

To fill out this form, you will need your completed copy of Chapter 13 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income and Calculation of Commitment Period (Official Form 122C-1).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for being accurate. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: Calculate Your Deductions from Your Income

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issues National and Local Standards for certain expense amounts. Use these amounts to answer the questions in lines 6-15. To find the IRS standards, go online using the link specified in the separate instructions for this form. This information may also be available at the bankruptcy clerk's office.

Deduct the expense amounts set out in lines 6-15 regardless of your actual expense. In later parts of the form, you will use some of your actual expenses if they are higher than the standards. Do not include any operating expenses that you subtracted from income in lines 5 and 6 of Form 122C-1, and do not deduct any amounts that you subtracted from your spouse's income in line 13 of Form 122C-1.

If your expenses differ from month to month, enter the average expense.

Note: Line numbers 1-4 are not used in this form. These numbers apply to information required by a similar form used in chapter 7 cases.

5. The number of people used in determining your deductions from income

Fill in the number of people who could be claimed as exemptions on your federal income tax return, plus the number of any additional dependents whom you support. This number may be different from the number of people in your household.

National Standards

You must use the IRS National Standards to answer the questions in lines 6-7.

- 6. Food, clothing, and other items: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for food, clothing, and other items.

$ _____

- 7. Out-of-pocket health care allowance: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for out-of-pocket health care. The number of people is split into two categories—people who are under 65 and people who are 65 or older—because older people have a higher IRS allowance for health care costs. If your actual expenses are higher than this IRS amount, you may deduct the additional amount on line 22.

GUIDELINES FOR USING MANDATORY CHAPTER 13 PLAN

1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

A. Purpose of Guidelines

The Southern District of California Bankruptcy Court has adopted a form chapter 13 plan to reduce debtors' legal expenses and to provide creditors the clearest possible explanation of how their claims will be treated in accordance with the law. These goals should at all times guide debtors in completing the plan. Use of the plan is required, and any questions about the plan can be raised with the Chapter 13 trustee.

These guidelines are offered to assist parties and counsel in completing the required form plan and do not have the force of law. Based upon the circumstances of a particular case, the Court may interpret the legal requirements of a given plan provision differently from what is stated in the guidelines.

B. Do Not Include Unnecessary Provisions

The plan uses as its platform the proposed National Plan, Official Form 113. The plan is a fillable document that contains many instructions, blanks, and choices for different provisions. All required information must be included, all necessary choices must be made, and optional provisions must be clearly designated.

C. Secured Creditor Identification Must Include Last Four Digits of Account Number

The plan must list each secured creditor by name and the last four digits of the account number, which should match debtors' schedules. The plan must also state with specificity what each creditor will or is likely to receive on its claim – how often payments will be made, when payments will start, how many payments will be made, and the amount of each payment.

D. Alteration of Standard-Form Language Prohibited

A major advantage of any standard form is that parties and the Court will become familiar with its language and will learn to find quickly and easily the information they seek. This advantage is lost, and creditors and the Court can be misled, if a party alters the plan's language or does not alert creditors and the Court to changes made. Thus the plan includes Part 9, which requires all non-standard provisions to be identified there.

Any failure to list a material alteration in the standard-form language could lead to negative consequences for the debtors.

2. HOW TO DOWNLOAD THE PLAN

The plan is available as a Microsoft Word Document (.doc) and may be downloaded from the Southern District of California Bankruptcy Court's website at: www.casb.uscourts.gov, click on Forms and on All Court Forms.

After downloading the plan, open the document in your word processing application.

Debtors should not change the font type or font size of the plan. The body text should be in 11-point Arial font.

3. NAMING THE PLAN

Caption. Insert the full name of each debtor exactly as it appears on the petition.

Case Number. Insert the full 7-digit case number followed by the initials of the judge assigned to the case and the number 13, for example, 12-34567-JJ13.

Date. The plan must be dated.

4. GUIDELINES FOR SPECIFIC PARTS OF THE PLAN

A. Part 1: Notices

This part provides information on procedures for objecting to a plan and also apply to supplemental motions that must be brought for certain plan provisions.

Do not forget to check any box that might apply to:

- limiting the amount of a secured claim; or
- inclusion of a nonstandard provision

These sections also assist your clients in further notifying their creditors that the creditors' rights may be modified in the proposed plan.

B. Part 2: Plan Payments and Length of Plan

The plan must state the monthly payments proposed to be made to the trustee. Debtors must also affirm the applicable commitment period as being either 36 or 60 months in section 2.1. In the case of a below-median income earner, plan payments may exceed 36 months if necessary to perform the plan.

Section 2.2 allows debtors to propose step-ups for certain periods of time (e.g., plan payment step-up after repayment of a 401k loan or a vehicle loan that was paid outside the plan). All plan payment adjustments should be stated in section 2.2 and not in the "non-standard" provision section at the end of the plan.

Section 2.3 provides that debtors can opt to make payments either directly or through an employment or payroll deduction order, which would be issued by the Court. Debtors' selection on how payments will be made does not preclude the trustee from asking the Court to issue an Employer Withholding Order if debtors miss plan payments.

Section 2.4 expands on additional payments coming from income tax refunds or whether debtors will retain such refunds. Committing future tax refunds as additional plan payments may create feasibility risks for the plan and should be carefully considered. The second option in Section 2.4 provides that debtors "will timely pay all post-confirmation tax liabilities directly to the appropriate taxing authority as they become due." This clause is intended to clarify that debtors remain responsible for: (a) the correct withholding allowance for wage earners; and (b) making sufficient quarterly income tax payments to the Internal Revenue Service and to state taxing authorities. The filing of a post-petition claim by a taxing authority asserting liability under 11 U.S.C. § 1305(a) may be evidence of a plan breach and may also cause the plan to become infeasible. Debtors must pay these claims either through extra payments under the plan or by separate payments, as payment of this increase will not reduce the payment to the other unsecured creditors in the plan.

Section 2.5 allows debtors to propose additional periodic payments to the trustee beyond the monthly plan payment if necessary either to ensure: (a) that certain arrearage claims can be paid; or (b) payment of projected disposable income over the applicable commitment period. These irregular payments may come from commissions, bonuses, or sale of assets (e.g., real estate). Debtors may need to provide supporting documents to the trustee or to the Court if an objection is filed to the plan to validate these anticipated additional payments.

Section 2.6 requires debtors to calculate an aggregate sum of money anticipated to be paid to the trustee over the plan's life. This calculation will assist the Court in determining whether the plan is or will be feasible based on the estimated claims to be paid through the plan.

C. Part 3: Treatment of Secured Claims

Part 3 contains five different options for treatment of secured claims. The purpose of providing standard language for alternate treatments is to streamline debtors' selection of those various treatments and to make it easier for creditors to understand how their claims are being treated. Whether the trustee or debtors will make the payment must also be identified in certain sections of Part 3.

A secured claim should appear in only one section of Part 3.

Section 3.1 is used when debtors intend to keep the property securing the claim, cure any pre-petition default over the plan term, and make all post-petition payments as they come due outside the bankruptcy, so that the loan is reinstated according to its original terms when the plan is completed. The trustee will only make the cure payments, but will not make either the ongoing payments to the creditor or adequate protection payments to them. The trustee will begin disbursements only after the plan is confirmed. Debtors should therefore continue to make both the regular payments and any required adequate protection payments immediately after the case is filed.

A common objection to confirmation arises when there is a discrepancy between the estimated arrears identified by debtors and the arrears in the creditor's filed proof of claim. The third sentence of section 3.1 makes clear that a timely filed proof of claim controls over the amounts listed in the plan with respect to the arrearage. If this discrepancy is significant, however, the monthly plan payment on the arrearage may have to increase accordingly. In that event, a plan modification would need to be sought so that debtors' monthly payments are sufficient to cure the entire arrearage by the end of the plan. Debtors and their counsel should monitor the proofs of claim as they are filed to ensure the plan can be performed in accordance with its original terms. They should also carefully consider the effect of a loan modification if the arrearage amount changes after the plan is confirmed.

Section 3.2

Section 3.2 is used when the amount owed to the secured creditor exceeds the value of its collateral, and debtors intend to pay the amount equal to the value of creditor's collateral as an allowed secured claim according to the plan's terms. Any remaining amount greater than the collateral's value should be treated as an unsecured claim in Part 5. This provision is not available for claims secured solely by debtors' principal residence, unless the lien in question is entirely unsecured.

Note that a separate motion must be brought if the collateral is real estate, but not if the collateral is personal property. Make sure that the proper box is checked in the plan.

For personal property secured claims where the collateral is valued under the plan, the arrearage is not separately paid since debtors will only pay the value of the collateral regardless of the arrearage.

If a personal property lease is also a secured claim, it should be addressed in Section 6.1. Arrears should be paid separately and in addition to ongoing lease payments.

The trustee or debtors must make adequate protection payments to creditors listed under this section in accordance with general orders of the court. Note that debtors who fail to timely make either adequate protection payments or their regular payments to the trustee risk the creditors claiming a default and seeking to foreclose on their collateral.

Section 3.3

Section 3.3 deals with secured claims excluded from 11 U.S.C. § 506 that will not be valued under the plan, although the interest rate and payment terms may be modified. These claims are specified in this section of the plan.

One example of such claims are those that may not by law be bifurcated into secured and unsecured portions under § 506(a), such as for claims secured by the debtors' principal residence where the value of the collateral is not less than the affected claim plus all senior liens.

Another example includes claims for which only the payment terms are restructured under the plan, such as by proposing a different interest rate than the contract rate for payment of the claim.

This section also applies to claims that debtors must pay in full (e.g., cars purchased less than 910 days before filing the petition or personal property purchased less than one year before the petition date) and that debtors seek to pay in full through the plan.

Finally, this section also applies to debts secured by debtors' residence that are fully due and payable.

A claim may be treated under Section 3.1 instead of Section 3.3 if no modifications of the terms are sought and only the arrearage is to be cured.

The trustee or debtors must make adequate protection payments under this section. Timely plan payments must be made to avoid default if trustee is designated to make the payments.

Section 3.4

Section 3.4 allows debtors to surrender the collateral to the secured creditor. In that event, the automatic and co-debtor stays under 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(a) and 1301 both terminate with respect to the collateral surrendered. The trustee will not pay anything on these secured claims.

Surrender of the collateral may result in a deficiency claim filed once the creditor liquidates the collateral. Unless an objection is filed to the deficiency claim and is sustained, the trustee will treat the deficiency claim as an unsecured claim pursuant to Part 5 of the plan.

Section 3.5

This section should be used to identify claims that debtors do not want the trustee to pay, but which will be paid or otherwise handled by debtors or third parties outside the bankruptcy case.

Secured claims that are not to be impaired under the plan can be identified here. This might be the case where the secured claim is current and fully secured. If a debtor is the co-signor on a secured claim that another party directly pays and is current, this may be the proper section to use.

D. Part 4: Treatment of Priority Claims

This part provides for the treatment of administrative expenses such as trustee and attorney fees, as well as other claims entitled to priority status under 11 U.S.C. § 507 such as tax claims or employee wage claims.

Sections 4.1 and 4.2 provide that all allowed priority claims (other than those domestic support obligations treated in sections 4.4 and 4.5) will be paid in full, but without interest unless interest is required to be paid under law. Since the plan may be confirmed before the priority claims are filed, debtors and their counsel must monitor the filing of these claims to ensure that plan performance remains feasible.

Section 4.5 provides for unassigned domestic support obligations. The trustee will pay the priority claim identified by naming the creditor and the amount of the claim, although the creditor's timely filed proof of claim will control if it states an amount different from what was estimated in the plan. Here as well, debtors and counsel must monitor these claims and either object to a wrongfully filed claim or file a claim for a domestic support obligation creditor to ensure all these claims are paid in full before the plan is completed.

Unassigned domestic support obligations must be paid or debtors will not receive their discharge. And failure to pay may constitute a breach of the plan.

Section 4.6 addresses assigned domestic support obligations and provides that these claims are paid at the same level as general unsecured claims. The plan may propose to pay less than the full amount of a domestic support obligation that has been assigned to or owed to a governmental unit, but not less than the amount that claim would have received in a chapter 7 liquidation.

Section 4.7 requires a statement of the attorney fees to be paid under the plan and should match the "unpaid balance of fees" as noted on the Disclosure of Compensation plus any anticipated guideline fees such as a motion to extend the automatic stay or a motion to value.

Debtors may agree with their counsel to payment of attorney fees through specified installments, instead of from the first payments available. This should be considered to ensure adequate protection payments are made to a secured lender whose monthly adequate protection payments would be delayed due to a substantial amount owing to debtor's counsel (e.g., a $3,000 balance in attorney fees would be paid over ten months if the installment payment amount is $300).

Section 4.8 deals with other priority claims identified in 11 U.S.C. § 507, including unsecured priority tax claims. This section also treats the secured portion of tax claims. The trustee will pay any allowed pre-petition priority claim that is not explicitly excluded from the plan in section 3.5. Priority income tax claims that disclose "estimated liability" or "under audit" for specific years may be paid in the amounts stated in later amendments. This could create performance problems under the plan if the amended claims are higher than expected. In this event, debtors and counsel should monitor the claims filed and seek a plan modification or other relief if necessary. An amended tax claim that reduces the amount due and leads to a refund request by the trustee may also delay the closing of the case.

E. Part 5: Non-Priority Unsecured Claims Not Separately Classified

Section 5.2 requires the trustee to adjust the payment percentage of the general unsecured creditors to account for claims that are filed in higher or lower amounts than scheduled. Regardless of whether the payment percentage changes, debtors must make the plan payments required for the entire applicable commitment period.

Debtors must calculate and state the amount that general unsecured creditors would receive if the case were hypothetically liquidated in a chapter 7 case. Generally stated, debtors must calculate the value of their property less secured claims, priority claims, exemption amounts, sales costs, and estimated chapter 7 costs of administration and pay the general unsecured creditors at least as much as the remaining balance.

If unsecured creditors would be paid in full in a Chapter 7 liquidation, or if debtors retain disposable income, then interest on both priority and general unsecured creditors may be required under 11 U.S.C. §§ 1325(a)(4) or (b)(1). Otherwise, unless debtors separately classify a non-priority unsecured creditor's claim, interest is generally not paid on general unsecured or priority claims.

Section 5.5 of the plan recognizes that debtors may separately classify and provide special treatment for certain non-priority unsecured claims, such as student loan claims, so long as they can provide evidence to meet the legal requirement that the plan does not unfairly discriminate against non-priority unsecured creditors.

F. Part 6: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

If debtors elect to assume an executory contract, including a car lease, this means they must maintain the ongoing payments outside of the plan and may cure any default under this Section. In that instance, debtors should check the box for Current Installment Payment to come from "Debtor." Debtors can also choose to have the trustee make the ongoing payments on the executory contract and pay the arrearage cure due under the contract or lease, but debtors will need to increase their plan payments to accommodate these payments to be made by the trustee.

Check the box "None" if no executory contracts are being assumed. If a contract or lease is not assumed, it will be rejected and not become part of the bankruptcy estate.

Note the arrears on a mortgage should not be listed in Part 6. Rather, debtors should use Section 3.1.

G. Part 7: Order of Distribution of Trustee Payments

As stated in the plan, the trustee will have discretion to determine the order of distribution within the requirements of applicable law and whether to reserve payment to claims that are subject to a pending objection.

H. Part 8: Vesting of Property of the Estate

This section provides that the estate property will remain in the estate and not revert in debtors until a chapter 13 discharge is granted or the case is dismissed or closed. For this reason, a motion must be filed for Court authorization if debtors seek to sell or refinance any material real or personal property before any of these events occur.

When the estate property reverts in debtors, it is revested subject to all liens and encumbrances on that property at the time the case was filed, except for those liens avoided by Court order or extinguished by operation of law. Debtors must bring an appropriate motion or action to avoid liens that they seek to remove from their property.

If a motion to value property is granted but the case does not successfully close and is later dismissed, the affected lien remains on the property.

I. Part 9: Nonstandard Plan Provisions

This part gives debtors the opportunity to propose provisions that are not otherwise in the plan, or deviate from it, if:

1. The nonstandard provision is set forth in this section;
2. The appropriate box in part 1 is checked; and
3. The nonstandard provision complies with applicable law.

J. Part 10: Signatures

This part requires the signature of debtors' counsel (if they have an attorney), or of debtors themselves (if they do not have an attorney). It also contains the signers' certification that their plan is identical to the mandatory form, except for nonstandard provisions in part 9.

Practice Pointers that Aid Timely Plan Completion and Tools for Monitoring the Plan Post Confirmation

A. Review the Notice of Claims Filed and Intent to Pay Claims

This report issued after confirmation and after the governmental bar date will let you know at a glance if the case will perform as desired.

i. For the cases confirmed before the bar date, this report is a timely recheck of the plan. A review of the report will identify if any secured creditors have failed to file a claim; the claim amount will be listed as $0.00.

ii. If a claim secured by personal property was not provided for in the plan, such as a furniture claim, it will be listed as excluded.

B. Review the Trustee's Periodic Reports

The trustee also issues periodic reports to provide debtors with current information about their progress under the plan. Simple arithmetic will let you know if the plan is going to exceed 60 months. Debtors must review these reports to avoid surprises when the plan does not complete within the expected applicable commitment period. Excessive length may result from estimated claims based on unfiled tax returns, or from debtors not keeping their post-petition tax liabilities current.

C. Unfiled Tax Returns

If debtors have one or more years of unfiled federal income tax returns, the Internal Revenue Service will typically file a Proof of Claim based on "Estimated Liability," often estimated at the highest end of the range. Debtors should consider whether it would be expeditious to mail a duplicate original of the return (i.e., a copy of the outstanding return signed and dated in blue ink) to the local Special Procedures Branch. The original return should be sent to the regularly designated Service Center. Following review, the Internal Revenue Service will often file an amended Proof of Claim reflecting the amount actually assessed and this is generally lower than the Estimated Liability. To avoid overpayment on the secured or priority portion of the tax claim, the Chapter 13 Trustee may elect to disburse on the tax claim at a lower distribution level to avoid the delay in administration that is required if an overpayment collection letter is required.

D. Minimum Monthly Installment for Creditor and Caveat Concerning Interest

The recommended minimum monthly installment is $25. This is based on the increased cost of postage and trustee's administrative overhead. Non-institutional creditors often take extra time to cash smaller checks and this delays case closing.

However, a small installment may be insufficient to fully amortize a claim entitled to interest under the plan or by statute. For example, the claim of a County Tax Collector in California will likely assert that interest must be paid at 18%. To ensure that the tax claim is fully amortized and timely paid, debtors should consider providing a specified installment payment on these claims if necessary.

This plan does not provide for avoidance of a lien which impairs an exemption. This must be sought by separate motion.

To Debtors:

In some places this form provides you with options. You should carefully consider whether you need to elect among the options. If you do, you should carefully consider which option is appropriate.

In the following notice to creditors, you must check each box that applies.

To Creditors:

Your rights may be affected by this plan. Your claim may be reduced, modified, or eliminated.

You should read this plan carefully and discuss it with your attorney, if you have one in this bankruptcy case. If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.

If you oppose the plan's treatment of your claim or any provision of this plan, you or your attorney must file an objection to confirmation in accordance with Southern District of California Local Bankruptcy Rule 3015-5 within 7 days after the filing of the Notice of Meeting of Creditors Held and Concluded. Debtor(s) will make regular payments to the trustee as follows:

Complete one.

$ _____ per month for 36 months (Applicable commitment period for below median debtor(s))

$ _____ per month for 60 months (Applicable commitment period for above median debtor(s))

$ _____ per month _____ months (Despite applicable commitment period of 36 months, debtor(s) seek additional time to cure secured or priority arrearages or to make necessary payments to meet the liquidation test specified in § 5.2.2.)

2.2 Irregular payments.

Debtor(s) will change the payment amount at different time periods as follows:

$		per		from		to
----	--	-----	--	------	--	----	--

Insert additional payments as needed.

2.3 Manner of payments.

Regular payments must be made directly to the trustee from future earnings unless the court issues an earnings withholding order. Any other manner of payment must be specified by checking the box below.

☐ Other (specify method of payment): _____ .

2.4 Income tax issues.

Check all that apply.

- ☐ Debtor(s) will retain any federal or state tax refunds received during the plan term.
- ☐ Debtor(s) will supply the trustee with a copy of each federal and state tax return filed during the plan term within 14 days of filing the return.
- ☐ Debtor(s) will turn over to the trustee all federal and state income tax refunds, other than earned income or child care tax credits, received during the plan term.
- ☐ Debtor(s) will supply the trustee with federal and state tax returns filed during the plan term and will turn over to the trustee a portion of any federal and state income tax refunds received during the plan term as specified below.

Debtor(s) must not change their withholding exemptions during the plan term unless there is an appropriate change in circumstances and will timely pay all post-confirmation tax liabilities directly to the appropriate taxing authority as they become due.

2.5 Additional payments.

Check one. If neither box is checked, "None" applies.

- ☐ None. If "None" is checked, the rest of § 2.5 need not be completed or reproduced.
- ☐ Debtor(s) will make additional payment(s) to the trustee from other sources, as specified below. Describe the source, estimated amount, and date of each anticipated payment.

2.6 The total amount of estimated payments to the trustee provided for in §§ 2.1 through 2.5 is

$ _____ .

Part 3: Treatment of Secured Claims3.1 Maintenance of payments and cure of any default.

Check one. If neither box is checked, "None" applies.

- ☐ None. If "None" is checked, the rest of § 3.1 need not be completed or reproduced.
- ☐ The debtor(s) will maintain the contractual installment payments on the claims listed below, with any changes required by the applicable contract, and cure any default in payments on the secured claims listed below. The allowed claim for any arrearage amount will be paid under the plan, with interest, if any, at the rate stated. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the amounts listed on a proof of claim or amended proof of claim filed before the filing deadline under Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c) control over any contrary amounts listed below. A tardily filed proof of claim will be disallowed unless it is estimated below or unless the debtor(s) brings a motion to allow the claim. If relief from the automatic stay is ordered as to any item of collateral listed in this paragraph, then, unless otherwise ordered by the court, all payments under this paragraph as to that collateral will cease and all secured claims based on that collateral will no longer be treated by the plan. The final column includes only payments disbursed by the trustee rather than by the debtor.

Name of creditor with last 4 digits of account number	Collateral	Amount of arrearage	Interest rate on arrearage (if applicable)	Monthly plan payment on arrearage	Estimated total payments by trustee
		$	%	$	$
		$	%	$	$
		$	%	$	$

Insert additional claims as needed.

3.2 Request for valuation of security and claim modification.

To determine the proper valuation of real estate secured claims, the debtor(s) must timely file a motion in accordance with Local Bankruptcy Rule 3015-8 in addition to including the creditor in this section of the plan. No such motion is necessary for valuation determinations for personal property secured claims.

The portion of any allowed claim that exceeds the amount of the secured claim will be treated as an unsecured claim under Part 5 of this plan unless the claim is entitled to priority status, in which case it will be provided in Part 4. If the amount of a creditor's secured claim is listed below as having no value, the creditor's allowed claim will be treated in its entirety as an unsecured claim under Part 5 of this plan. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the amount of the creditor's total claim listed on the proof of claim controls over any contrary amounts listed in this paragraph.

The holder of any claim listed below as having value in the column headed Amount of secured claim will retain the lien until the earlier of the following events as applicable to the particular secured creditor: 1) payment of the underlying debt determined under nonbankruptcy law; 2) discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 1328, or 3) completion of payments under the plan if the debtors(s) are not entitled to a discharge. After the date applicable to termination of the lien, it will be released by the creditor unless the claim is a nondischargeable claim owed to a governmental entity. See Local Bankruptcy Rule 3015-8.

Check one. If neither box is checked, "None" applies.

☐ None. If "None" is checked, the rest of § 3.2 need not be completed or reproduced.

The remainder of this paragraph will be effective only if the applicable box in Part 1 of this plan is checked.

☐ The debtor(s) request that the court determine the value of the secured claims to be treated in the manner below. For each non-governmental secured claim listed below, the debtor(s) state that the value of the secured claim should be as stated below in the column headed Amount of secured claim. For secured claims of governmental units, unless otherwise ordered by the court pursuant to a claim objection, the amounts listed in proofs of claim filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules control over any contrary amounts listed below. For each listed secured claim, the controlling amount of the claim will be paid in full under the plan with interest at the rate stated below.

3.2.1 Identify creditor and collateral.

5.1 General.

Nonpriority unsecured claims will be paid to the extent allowed as specified in this Part.

5.2 Nonpriority unsecured claims not separately classified.

Allowed nonpriority unsecured claims that are not separately classified in this plan will be paid, pro rata, all funds remaining after payment of all other creditors provided under the plan. Payments to unsecured creditors will be allowed to the extent paid if an allowed amended, late filed, or late added claim reduces the amount available to unsecured creditors under this section.

5.2.1 Projected payment to nonpriority unsecured creditors.

Based upon the total payments to the trustee listed in § 2.6 of the plan, minus the payments under the plan on the claims scheduled by the debtor(s) that are provided for in §§ 3.1 through 3.3, Part 4, §§ 5.3 through 5.5, and Part 6 of the plan, the estimated payment to allowed nonpriority unsecured claims not separately classified under the plan is $ _____. 			$	$

Part 7: Order of Distribution of Trustee Payments

Trustee will have discretion to determine the order of distribution within the requirements of applicable law and whether to reserve payment to claims that are subject to a pending objection.

Part 8: Vesting of Property of the Estate

Property of the estate will not revert in the debtor(s) until a Chapter 13 discharge is granted or the case is dismissed or closed without a Chapter 13 discharge. Before then, the debtor(s) must seek approval of the court to purchase, sell, or refinance property of a material value, or to enter into loan modifications. Revestment will be subject to all liens and encumbrances in existence when the case was filed, except those liens avoided by court order or extinguished by operation of law. In the event the case is converted to a case under chapter 7, 11, or 12 of the Bankruptcy Code, the property of the estate will vest in accordance with applicable law.
