UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF CHAPTER 13 DEBTORS
AND THEIR ATTORNEY
(Consumer Case)

It is important for debtors in Chapter 13 bankruptcy to understand their rights and responsibilities. It is also important that they know what their attorney's responsibilities are and appreciate the importance of communicating with their attorney to make the case successful. Debtors can expect their attorney to provide certain services for them. And they should know the costs of attorneys' fees through the life of a plan. To assure that debtors and their attorney understand their rights and responsibilities in the bankruptcy process, the Bankruptcy Court has made the following rights and responsibilities binding on them under Local Bankruptcy Rule 1002-1(c) and General Order 180-A. (Nothing in this agreement should be construed to excuse an attorney from any ethical duties or responsibilities under any other applicable law.)

Debtors' attorneys can be paid in one of two ways: through guideline fees; or by formal fee application. The choice, agreed upon by the debtors and their attorney, must be made at the start of the representation. Once an attorney accepts any type of guideline fee in any amount, guideline fees will apply for the duration of the case. In this case, the attorney [check one]:

- will be paid guideline fees (subject to increase through a fee application only in atypical cases as discussed below).
- waives guideline fees and will instead prepare fee applications for all work done.

UNLESS THE COURT ORDERS OTHERWISE, in every case – regardless of fee regime – the following rights and responsibilities apply:

The debtor must:

1. Provide accurate financial information.
2. Provide information in a timely manner.
3. Cooperate and communicate with the attorney.
4. Discuss with the attorney the debtor's objectives in filing the case.
5. Keep the trustee and attorney informed of the debtor's address and telephone number.
6. Inform the attorney of any wage garnishments or attachments of assets which occur or continue after the filing of the case.
7. Contact the attorney promptly if the debtor loses his/her job or has other financial problems.
8. Let the attorney know immediately if the debtor is sued before or during the case.
9. Inform the attorney if any tax refunds the debtor is entitled to are seized or not returned to the debtor by the IRS or Franchise Tax Board.
10. Contact the attorney before buying, refinancing, or selling real property or before entering into any long-term loan agreements to find out what approvals are required.
11. Pay any filing fees and filing expenses that may be incurred directly to the attorney.
12. Pay appropriate attorney's fees commensurate with this agreement and the United States Bankruptcy Court Guidelines regarding Chapter 13 Attorney Fees. Any future increase or other change in "additional fees" under the guidelines will also automatically apply to this case until it is finally closed. If a court order is entered regarding attorney's fees, fees should be paid in accordance with the court's order.

To receive $5,000 in "initial fees" under the guidelines, and in the case of all fee applications, the attorney must:

1. Meet with the debtor to review the debtor's assets, liabilities, income and expenses.
2. Analyze the debtor's financial situation and render advice to the debtor in determining whether to file a petition in bankruptcy.
3. Counsel the debtor regarding the advisability of filing either a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 case, discuss both procedures with the debtor, and answer the debtor's questions.
4. Explain to the debtor how the attorney's fees and trustee's fees are paid.
5. Explain what payments will be made directly by the debtor and when to make those payments, and what payments will be made through the debtor's Chapter 13 plan (with particular attention to mortgage and vehicle loan payments, as well as any other claims with accrued interest).
6. Explain to the debtor how, when, and where to make the Chapter 13 plan payments.
7. Explain to the debtor that the first plan payment must be made to the Trustee within 30 days of the date the plan is filed.
8. Advise the debtor of the requirement to attend the § 341(a) Meeting of Creditors, and instruct the debtor as to the date, time and place of the meeting.
9. Advise the debtor of the necessity of maintaining liability, collision and comprehensive insurance on vehicles securing loans or leases.
10. Timely prepare, file and serve the debtor's petition, plan, schedules, statement of financial affairs, and any necessary amendments thereto, which may be required.
11. Provide an executed copy of the Rights and Responsibilities of Chapter 13 Debtors and their Attorneys and a copy of the Court's Guidelines regarding Chapter 13 Attorney Fees to the debtor.
12. Appear and represent the debtor at the § 341(a) Meeting of Creditors and any confirmation hearings.

13. Respond to the objections to plan confirmation, and where necessary, prepare, file and serve an amended plan.
14. Provide Certification of Eligibility for Discharge pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 4004-1.
15. Provide such other legal services as are necessary for the administration of the case before the Bankruptcy Court, which include, but are not limited to, a continuing obligation to assist the debtor by returning telephone calls, answering questions and reviewing and sending correspondence.

Additional services may be required but are not included in the guideline “initial fees” of $5,000. If necessary and when appropriate, the attorney, at the debtor’s request and only with the debtor’s cooperation, must provide the following services for “additional fees” described below:

1. Prepare, file and serve necessary modifications to the plan post-confirmation, which may include suspending, lowering or increasing plan payments.
2. Prepare, file and serve necessary motions to buy, sell or refinance real property and authorize use of cash collateral or assume executory contracts or unexpired leases.
3. Object to improper or invalid claims.
4. Represent the debtor in motions for relief from stay.
5. Prepare, file and serve necessary motions to avoid liens on real or personal property.
6. Prepare, file and serve necessary oppositions to motions for dismissal of case.
7. Provide such other legal services as are necessary for the administration of the case before the Bankruptcy Court, which include but are not limited to, presenting appropriate legal pleadings and making appropriate court appearances.

Should additional services be provided and “additional fees” requested, the attorney must:

1. Provide proper notice in accordance with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002.
2. Advise the debtor of all “additional fees” requested and file a declaration with the court stating that counsel has so advised the debtor of the fees requested and the debtor has no objection to the requested fees.

The “Guidelines Regarding Chapter 13 Attorney Fees” provide for “additional fees” within the United States Bankruptcy Court’s parameters for “additional fees” in the following amounts and include all court appearances required to pursue described actions.

Modified Plan (Post-Confirmation)

For fees and expenses for services rendered post-confirmation for opposing, preparing, filing, noticing, and attending hearings on any motion to modify debtor’s plan under section 1329 of the Bankruptcy Code (including the preparation of amended income and expenses statements and providing proof of income). (These fees should be less for modification due to clerical error or other administrative issues.)

Opposition to Motions for Relief from Stay

$625 (Personal property)

$850 (Real property)

For fees and expenses of all services rendered in opposition to motions to modify or vacate automatic stay.

Obtaining Orders re: Sale or Refinance of Real Property

$725	(Sale of Real Property)	For fees and expenses of all services rendered for order authorizing the sale or refinancing of real estate but not including loan modifications.
$725	(Refinance of Real Property)

Objections to Claim

$330	(Uncontested objections without hearing)	For fees and expenses of all services rendered for preparing, filing and noticing objections to a claim. (Fees must not exceed 50% of the amount the trustee would have otherwise paid.)
$500	(Contested objections with a hearing)

Oppositions to Dismissal/Motions to Avoid Lien/ Loan Modifications/Other Routine Pleadings

$650

For fees and expenses of all services rendered for preparing, filing, noticing, and attending hearings in opposition to a motion to dismiss the case, for motions to avoid lien or to approve a loan modification, and for other routine pleadings.

Motions to Value Real Property, Treat Claim as Unsecured and Avoid Junior Lien (Lien Strips)

$815

For fees and expenses of all services rendered for preparing, filing, noticing, and attending hearings when there is opposition to a motion to value real property, treat claim as unsecured and avoid junior lien.

Motions to Impose/Extend Automatic Stay

$480	(Unopposed)	For fees and expenses of all services rendered for preparing, filing, noticing and attending hearings on motion to impose or extend the automatic stay.
$725	(Opposed)

Novel and Complex Motions and Oppositions to Motions

These types of motions and oppositions may be billed at hourly rates, and counsel must file a fee application in compliance with Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Local Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 2016.

Requirements for a fee application:

Once the attorney receives any guideline fee in the case, a later fee application must be based on atypicality. That requires showing that the case presented issues more difficult than those faced by Chapter 13 practitioners on a regular basis. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592 (9th Cir. 2006). Filing a novel and complex motion, or opposing one, may meet that description. All fee applications must comply with applicable rules, including Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Local Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 2016, and all United States Trustee guidelines.

Debtor's objection to a fee application:

The debtor has the right to timely object to a fee application and may be heard in connection with any other party's fee objection. If the debtor disputes the legal services provided or the fees charged by the attorney, the debtor may file an objection with the court and set the matter for hearing.

Dismissal or withdrawal of the attorney:

Any change of debtor's attorney must be approved by court order. This requirement applies to all substitutions and withdrawals of counsel, including where: (1) debtor seeks to discharge the attorney; (2) the attorney seeks permission to withdraw as counsel; and (3) debtor and their attorney file a stipulation to substitute or withdraw counsel.

Payment of fees:

By signing this document, debtor agrees that their attorney can be paid guideline fees in the amounts listed above, if guideline fees have been chosen. All post-filing fees will be paid through the plan unless either the court orders otherwise, or the attorney: (1) holds in their client trust account all additional fees paid by the debtor; (2) promptly discloses receipt of those fees; and (3) promptly seeks court approval. Such fees may be disbursed from the attorney's client trust account only after the court awards them. The bankruptcy judge has discretion in approving fees and may allow less than the requested amount.

The initial guideline fee may not exceed $5,000 in consumer cases. The initial fee charged in this case is $_____.

I acknowledge the foregoing.
