On March 18, 2020, this court entered its Administrative Order 20-1, advising that all hearings would be conducted telephonically until further order of the court due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. Administrative Order 20-1 has remained in effect since that time.

On June 11, 2021, the District Court for the Southern District of California entered its Chief Judge Order No. 59-A allowing the resumption of in person hearings, due to the abatement of many of the circumstances of the public emergency caused by COVID-19 as people have become vaccinated. Chief Judge Order No. 59-A adopted certain safety protocols to facilitate resumption of in person proceedings. These protocols will apply in this court and obviate the need for mandatory telephonic hearings in all proceedings.

Accordingly, Administrative Order 20-1 is vacated effective July 1, 2021. Hearings will be scheduled thereafter for in person, telephonic, or video appearances in the discretion of the individual judge.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
