In the absence of appropriations or a continuing resolution, the Court adopts the following plan to fulfill its constitutional and statutory duties to hear and resolve cases and proceedings.

All judges, their chambers staff, the Clerk, as well as employees of the Clerk’s Office perform duties and functions that support the court and are necessary for the continued resolution of cases. Furthermore, this court absorbed several years of reductions of staffing resources; this underscores the need for all remaining staff to be present to fulfill the Court’s case related responsibilities.

Accordingly, all present employees of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of California, including the Bankruptcy Judges and their staff and the Clerk and employees of the Clerks’ Office are hereby deemed essential and are ordered to report for work according to normal schedules and to continue normal operations. To the fullest extent practicable during the funding lapse, activities shall be limited to those necessary and essential to support the Court in the resolution of cases and proceedings. The incurrence of travel and other expenditures must be limited to those that support the operations of the court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
